~~X~~ Roman SHPORLIAK, a Ukrainian from Lublin, Poland, is studying at Oxford University in England. He has a ten months' scholarship. He is working on his thesis in the history of political doctrine for a Ph.D. Professor Isai ~~X~~BERLIN is his mentor. After completing his ten months, he plans to return to the Catholic University in Lublin where he is expecting an assignment in the post of an assistant professor.

SHPORLIAK is the man whom Professor HORBACH met in mid-October 1957 in Warsaw. Details regarding this meeting were given in the report titled, "Situations of Ukrainians in the UkSSR and the USSR", submitted on 5 November 1957 in which report SHPORLIAK is referred to as "P".

SHPORLIAK has written from Oxford to Professor HORBACH asking him for some Ukrainian books and newspapers. A package was sent to him containing copies of the UKRAINSKA LITERATURNHA HAZETA and SUCHASNA UKRAINA, the INFORMATION BULLETIN and several books. Professor HORBACH asked SHPORLIAK to send him any criticisms and suggestions he may have after perusal of the literature sent to him. ✓

From the two letters received from SHPORLIAK by Professor HORBACH, it is noted that SHPORLIAK is a very capable individual, very critical and an intellectual-scholarly type. His interest in the life of Ukrainians in the UkSSR is witnessed by the fact that he reads the Soviet Ukrainian press about which he makes very interesting comments.

~~X~~ Professor HORBACH is planning to visit SHPORLIAK in April.
